YEAR 12 STUDENTS

Scholarships for high achievers

The University of Melbourne – The Hansen Scholarship

If you are planning to study at The University of Melbourne in 2023, you should consider applying for the prestigious Hansen Scholarship. Stage 1 applications are now open and close on Wednesday 9 March. You must be able to prove financial disadvantage to be eligible.

Australia National University (ANU) – Tuckwell Scholarship

If you are planning to study at ANU in 2023, you should consider applying for the prestigious Tuckwell Scholarship. Applications will open in March.

<https://tuckwell.anu.edu.au/>

Other scholarships

The Country Education Foundation has developed a resource to assist Year 12 students to find and apply for university scholarships.

The majority of scholarships for the 2023 intake won't open until later in the year, but students can use the website as a guide to what may be available.

<https://cef.org.au/scholarships-guide/>

University course search tools

Course Seeker

The Course Seeker website contains a national course comparison tool which allows students to search, select and compare higher education courses and filter search results by ATAR, study area and location, www.courseseeker.edu.au

View course ATARs

Year 12 students can view the ATAR profiles for university courses by using the course search functions on state based Tertiary Admission Centres.

Course ATARs can be used as a guide when planning for post school studies. It's important to note that as ATARs are based on the demand for a course, they may rise or fall for the 2023 intake.

Students will be able to view the lowest ATAR and lowest Selection Rank (ATAR inclusive of equity and academic bonus points) to receive an offer.

Use the following websites to access the information

Victoria	www.vtac.edu.au
NSW & ACT	www.uac.edu.au
QLD	www.qtac.edu.au
SA & NT	www.satac.edu.au
WA	www.tisc.edu.au
Tasmania	www.utas.edu.au

Australian Defence Force

ADF Gap Year Program

Year 12 students will soon be able to apply for the ADF Gap Year program. Students will be able to spend an exciting 12-months in the Navy, Army or Air Force, and get paid for meaningful work while travelling around Australia, gaining skills for life, and making lifelong friends.

To start the application process, you can book the YOU (Your Options Unlimited) session early. This is the first step in the recruitment process. For information and to book, visit <http://bit.ly/2Tyn8Yp>

For information, visit <https://bit.ly/3dCELlB>

Apply for university now!

Early admission is now open for the following universities. You could receive a guaranteed offer before your exams!

University of New England

Applications are now open for the direct early entry program and will close in September. You will need a recommendation from your school to be eligible. Offers will be made in November before your final ATAR and results are released.

Applying for Medicine, Dentistry or Oral Health?

If you are in Year 12 and plan to apply for medicine, dentistry and/or oral health to start in 2023, you may need to sit the UCAT ANZ (University Clinical Aptitude Test).

You will sit the test mid-year and selected universities use your UCAT ANZ results as part of the selection process, in conjunction with your ATAR and HSC/VCE results, and in some cases an interview.

You will only have one chance to sit the UCAT ANZ this year. It will cost you around $305 to sit the test, or $199 concession, and you will be able to receive your results straight away.

You have the choice to start preparing for the test early. There are several private companies who offer commercial preparation programs.

Please go to www.ucat.edu.au for more information about the UCAT ANZ, to see if you have to sit the test, and to register for the test.

UCAT Preparation Sessions

National Institute of Education is running an online simulated UCAT workshop on Sunday 22 February between 10am – 5pm. A second online session will be held shortly after, www.nie.edu.au

UCAT Mock Exam Day 2022

This is a free online UCAT trial exam that will be sat by thousands of students. You will be able to get your mock UCAT score and have a benchmark to work on improving for the exam later in the year. You can sit the exam any time on Sunday 27 February. You can register for the test via www.ucatmasterclass.com/ucat-med

Medicine Information Session

Charles Sturt University offers undergraduate medicine at the Orange, NSW campus in partnership with Western Sydney University. An online information session for prospective students will be held on Tuesday 29 March. Book via <https://engage.csu.edu.au/medicine-info-nights>

About 80% of all job vacancies aren't advertised, so it is crucial that you market yourself to businesses with an excellent resume and cover letter.

Make sure you tell as many people as possible that you are looking for work as often employers rely on 'word of mouth' to recruit for their positions.

Interested in a career with the Victoria Police?

VICTORIA POLICE

Victoria Police has four different roles available for students who might be interested in pursuing a career in policing.

- Police Officer
- Protective Services Officer
- Police Custody Officer
- Victorian Public Servant

For a brief overview of each role and to watch recruitment videos, visit - <https://bit.ly/2N5vhUu>

Experience and attributes the Force is looking for

Not every 18-year-old will be ready to apply but those who are gathering life experience whilst they are in high school will be more competitive throughout the recruitment process. For example:

Employment in a customer service role

Provides exposure to people of all works of life and develops communication, teamwork and conflict resolution skills. For example, working at McDonalds one day a week.

Volunteer experience

Develops a sense of community-mindedness and communication skills. For example, working at the local surf lifesaving club or community centre.

Sporting club experience

Develops teamwork, communication and leadership skills, not to mention the healthy level of fitness that is a requirement of the role.

Overseas travel

Provides exposure to other cultures, religions and languages and fosters a sense of independence and assertiveness.

For information on eligibility criteria and the recruitment process, visit the Victoria Police careers website, www.police.vic.gov.au/careers

Information session

The next career information sessions are running on 16 and 23 February. To view information, visit <https://bit.ly/3ryiA6o>

Interested in pursuing an apprenticeship or traineeship?

Even though you have just started the schooling year, your planning should start now.

Australian Apprenticeship Pathways have developed an excellent four-step guide to assist you to start planning - www.aapathways.com.au

Read through Step One and take the work type explorer quiz, download the AusAppPathways app to your phone, and complete practice aptitude quizzes to ascertain the level of literacy and numeracy skills you will need for different occupations.

You can also do the following during the year to prepare for an apprenticeship:

Meet with your Career Adviser to start planning your professional trade career

Undertake work experience in several fields or with several employers in the same field. See your Career Adviser for information on how to organise work experience.

Contact industry leaders and associations in your fields of interest to ask questions.

Contact local apprenticeship centres and/or group training organisations to ask their advice on what makes a competitive apprenticeship applicant. Use the following website to locate organisations in your local area www.australianapprenticeships.gov.au

Work hard in your English and Mathematics classes and VET/technology/science subjects if relevant. With advances in technology occurring across all apprenticeship fields, it will be crucial that you can read and interpret complex information and instructions and adapt to changes in technology during your apprenticeship and once qualified.

Bookmark websites for industries you are interested in to keep up to date with changes to industry technology, skills shortages, and events. For example:

Where else can you find job adds locally?

The SJC Careers Web Page has a job vacancies space. This lists a variety of opportunities, as they arise, including school-based apprenticeships (SBATs), part-time jobs, and full-time opportunities. The school regularly receives calls from employers looking for apprentices. Coming soon – employment opportunities at Mc Donalds.

You can find the job vacancies page under “For Students” on the Careers Web Page.
www.sjccareers.com

Do you need to make a Careers Appointment?

Students can make a time to speak to the Career Coordinator, on the appointment schedule, on the door of Karen Shum’s office at Careers. Students can pencil in a time in a blank space. They must then let their teacher know, prior to the appointment, that they will be missing that class. The teacher can then mark the student present, and the student can find out what work was missed.

During careers appointments, notes are taken, and the student receives a copy of these notes, via email, at the end of the meeting. Notes will summaries the discussion as well as any further actions that need to take place.

Careers Snapshot – Naval Shipbuilding

When you think of shipbuilding, you might picture working with big sheets of metal in large shipyards. But in reality, modern shipbuilding is much more than that – it’s highly complex and involves many people including project managers, engineers from across multiple disciplines and tradespeople working collaboratively with world class technology to design, build and maintain Australia’s current and future fleet.

With up to $183 billion invested by the Australian Government and 15,000 people needed at the peak of work, Australia’s Naval Shipbuilding Industry is growing rapidly – this is great news for young Australians looking for a secure and dynamic career! Over the next three decades, up to 23 different classes of vessels are being built for the Australian Defence Force – including nine Hunter Class Frigates and 12 Arafura Class Offshore Patrol Vessels.

These vessels require some of the world’s most advanced technology to ensure they’re invisible to attack, able to detect threats and can maintain the safety of the crew on board.

Perhaps you're wondering "Do I need to join the Navy?"

It's important to note that to work in shipbuilding, you don't need to join the Navy. You'll be employed by the large companies building the vessels, or the Australian-owned businesses supplying and manufacturing various components.

There are many pathways into shipbuilding via university and vocational education and training. The Naval Shipbuilding College (NSC) is an Australian Government Initiative and works with universities, TAFEs and other education providers across Australia to ensure the courses they deliver will enable you to be ready to launch into a naval shipbuilding career.

An introduction to the shipbuilding industry

What jobs could I work in?

There will be demand for thousands of people, right across Australia, to work in roles including:

Engineering

Engineers design the vessels and create the technology inside the ships and submarines

- Designers
- Software Engineers
- Electrical Engineers
- Mechanical Engineers
- Structural Engineers
- Combat Systems and Systems Engineers

Project Management

Project Managers oversee projects to ensure they run smoothly and are delivered on time

- Project Managers
- Planners
- Schedulers

Supply Chain

People working in the supply chain manage the sourcing and storing of materials needed to build the vessels

- Purchasing Officers
- Warehouse Managers
- Logistics Officers

Support roles

Many other functions are required to ensure smooth operations, including

- Human Resources
- Finance
- Legal
- Marketing and Communications

Operations / Trades

Tradespeople are at the heart of physically building the vessels. They ensure the hull - and everything inside - is properly and safely manufactured and installed

- Welders
- Boilermakers
- Electricians
- Fabricators
- Drafters
- Mechanics
